

TOO ROLLING STONED
ROBIN TROWER

A stitch in time, just about saved me, from going through the same old moves and this cat of nine, he still suffers, he's going through the same old blues

*But that stone just keeps on rolling bringing me such that bad news
The takers get the honey and the givers sing the blues*

Too many crooks yeah spoiled such a good thing, I know I had my laughs but that was then. Ain't it funny, fooling with money, always seem to find those new good friends .

*But that stone just keeps on rolling
bringing me such that bad news
The takers get the honey and the givers sing the blues*

SOLO

*But that stone just keeps on rolling
bringing me such that bad news
The takers get the honey and the givers sing the blues*

*A stitch in time helps to unfold me the circus starts at eight so don't be late. You'll be so kind not to wake me .
I..think...I'll just sit this one out.....*

*I'm too rolling stoned
Just like a rolling stone*
