

Breakfast Blues Feci & Vitamine

Woke up this morning

And the blues woke up with me

Yeah woke up this morning (baby)

They just won't let me free

When I come to eat (munch)

All the blues are in my brain

---

What can I do?

The sum of my days begins to shake

Yeah what can I do?

The sum of my days begins to shake

But I cannot remain

Remain in my heart today

Guitar solo -----

I'm stuck at the station

And I'm waiting for the train

Yeah I'm stuck at the station

And I'm waiting for my train

Yes I need to run

Cos my soul is far away

Well I'm free

It was all in your nightly dream

Well I'm free

It was only in your dreams

Well darling

The blues still came with me
